

Your Career = Your Life!

Finally, the most rewarding career choice for you!

To get started with your career report you will take an online career survey and immediately receive a personal report. Sheryl will receive a more comprehensive report when you have completed and contact you for a time to discuss your thinking style, behavioral traits, and interests that align with careers you would be very successful for at for your life time. She will then forward that report to you to discover more about the positions it recommends. This assessment information is 100% objective and based on the O-NET data base of thousands of job descriptions.

Find out what would best suit you and your natural talents to get the most job and lifetime career satisfaction for you!

Sheryl brings to her coaching practice thirty years of diversified experience in sales, marketing, management, coaching, and leadership. She has successfully coached hundreds of people over the years to assist them in clearly identifying what would make them happy in both their work and home lives.

Sheryl is accredited with the online Career Assessment, and is a Certified Coach Practitioner with the Certified Coaches Federation. She looks forward to giving you incredible insight to your natural talents and gifts and how you can use them to explore your career choice.

Your session is $199.00 plus HST, and can be scheduled at your convenience.

To book your Career Assessment and Consultation session with Sheryl via Skype, please click here for payment.

Sheryl will be in touch with you shortly.